

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

SENIOR PACKAGING DESIGNER (M|W|D)

Do you want to work in a pleasant, relaxed atmosphere characterised by mutual respect?

Do you want to work for well-known national and international brands with high creative standards?

Are you passionate about brand and packaging design as well as PoS and retail communication?

Then get to know our small, owner-managed agency immediately.

As soon as possible, we want to strengthen ourselves with the creative team player who develops, implements or manages challenging design projects from A - Z with passion and a sense of responsibility.

WHAT WOULD DELIGHT US:

- completed design study
- several years of experience in branding and packaging design with convincing references
- distinctive strategic and conceptual thinking
- exceptional understanding of design (we expect you to be proficient in the use of Adobe Creative Suite programmes)
- sophisticated retouching and composing of images
- absolute precision in the construction of data (from layout to final artwork)
- technical know-how of conventional printing processes
- experience in adapting master designs to final artwork level
- confidence in presentations and daily contact with clients
- German perfect, English must, French can
- open-minded team player

WHAT WILL DELIGHT YOU:

- independent and autonomous work
- exciting and varied projects for national and international top brands
- friendly clients who see us as partners
- attractive location in the heart of Hamburg-Eimsbüttel
- flexible working hours and mobile working, home office possible after initial training

Interested? Then send us your application, stating the earliest date you could start and your salary expectations, by e-mail to Matthias Ribbe: ribbe@ifp-design.de

We look forward to getting to know you.
